

Our regular features:

- Home Currents—the latest trends in design, décor and architecture
- Last Look—spotlighting work from our region's top design professionals
- Buying guide

Spring 2016

GARDENING

New-to-you gardening. Where to start when beginning a new garden bed. We list the five tasks to tackle first.

BUILDING / RENOVATION

We follow the work on an Atlantic Canadian home, from start to finish. Let us know about your interesting renovation or new-build project—we may feature it in our pages.

HOMESTYLE

Showcasing some of our region's most beautifully designed, furnished and decorated homes. Always eclectic, always stylish, this feature is a feast for the eyes and provides real inspiration.

IN DEPTH

Barrier-free beauty. We explore how architects and designers are embracing universal design and making homes accessible for people with mobility issues.

DÉCOR

The paper chase. Fresh ideas on using wallpaper in your home and what's new in paper technologies, patterns and textures.

Perfect imperfection. Learn about Ikebana, the Japanese art of flower arranging that focuses on using local flowers and plants.

EATING IN

Salt of the earth. We profile our region's best artisanal salt producers, exploring how finishing salt can elevate your cuisine.

Fresh spring herbs. Our experts recommend the best herbs to start growing early and how to showcase them in delicious recipes.

LIBATIONS

Brave new beers. Highlighting the top East Coast craft brewers to watch in 2016.

AND OUR NEW REGULAR FEATURES

- Home Currents—the latest trends in design, décor and architecture
- Last Look—spotlighting work from our region's top design professionals
- Source directory

Summer 2016

GARDENING

Creatively contained. Have your deck and yard blooming all season long with our guide to container gardening.

BUILDING / RENOVATION

Sanctuary by the sea. We feature a spectacular seaside home in Red Point, Prince Edward Island that showcases local craftspeople and materials.

SIGHTLINES

Phoenix rising. Following a devastating fire that destroyed his home in Quispamsis, N.B., chef Jesse Vergen and his family rebuilt their house from the ground up into a sleek contemporary space that also pays homage to its farmland setting.

IN DEPTH

Going the extra mile. Atlantic Canadian experts discuss the unique nooks and practical features you can consider adding to your home when building afresh or starting a dramatic renovation.

DÉCOR

Bathroom beauty. We profile stylish bathrooms by four top East Coast decorators, showcasing unique vanities, accessories and storage ideas.

Chalk it up. We explore the versatility and creative DIY possibilities available with chalk-paint projects.

EATING IN

Pie in the sky. We feature pizza, with delicious topping and crust recipes, plus advice on how to grill it on the barbecue.

Burger barons. Top Atlantic Canadian chefs and local beef producers share their tips and recipes for creating the best burgers just in time for grilling season.

LIBATIONS

Fruit of the glass. Profiling local wines that feature lesser-known fruit, such as cloudberry and partridge berries, perfect for summer sipping.

AND OUR NEW REGULAR FEATURES

- Home Currents—the latest trends in design, décor and architecture
- Last Look—spotlighting work from our region's top design professionals
- Source directory

Fall 2016

GARDENING

Glorious garlic

Glorious garlic. Tips on how to plant, grow and harvest your own organic, flavourful garlic.

BUILDING / RENOVATION

We profile a glorious family estate on a sprawling tree-lined property in Nova Scotia's bucolic Annapolis Valley. Following a dramatic renovation, it's full of elegant family heirlooms and chic custom designs

HOMESTYLE

Showcasing some of our region's most beautifully designed, furnished and decorated homes. Always eclectic, always stylish, this feature is a feast for the eyes and provides real inspiration.

IN DEPTH

Light it up. With advice from top East Coast experts, learn how you can change the look and feel of your home with the right lighting.

DÉCOR

Calm and collected. Experts discuss how to begin collecting artwork in your home with tips on choosing and arranging pieces for dramatic effect.

By the kitchen door. We profile kitchen pantries that are both beautiful and functional, and that showcase unique shelving and storage options.

EATING IN

Learn how to use late-season stone fruit (peaches, plums and cherries) to its full potential with creative sweet and savoury recipes.

Turkey talk. We explore the ways people are doing turkey: barbecuing, deep-frying and traditional roasting.

LIBATIONS

The sweet spot. Discover how honey mead is an emerging and delicious beverage more Atlantic Canadian vintners are exploring.

SPECIAL FEATURE:

Enjoy a sneak peek of what our design teams are planning for Dine By Design East 2016, our signature fundraiser celebrating the best Atlantic Canadian décor and cuisine.

AND OUR NEW REGULAR FEATURES

- Home Currents—the latest trends in design, décor and architecture
- Last Look—spotlighting work from our region's top design professionals
- Source directory

Winter 2016

GARDENING

Put the garden to bed

Discover what practical steps you need to take to protect your plants during the winter.

BUILDING / RENOVATION

We follow the work on an Atlantic Canadian home, from start to finish. Let us know about your interesting renovation or new-build project—we may feature it in our pages.

SIGHTLINES

From the traditional designs brought by the earliest settlers to exciting new innovations, Atlantic Canada boasts a tremendous variety of architectural styles. In this recurring feature, we explore some of the region's most intriguing designs.

IN DEPTH

Ready for winter

Advice on readying your cottage or coastal summer home for winter, with tips on preventing damage from temperature dips and storm surges.

DÉCOR

Exclusive coverage from Dine By Design East 2016, our signature fundraiser celebrating the best décor and cuisine on the East Coast. View the 10 unique design spaces created especially for our event and behind-the-scenes shots from our gala.

EATING IN

We profile the talented chefs and their delicious recipes showcased at Dine By Design East 2016, our annual fundraiser celebrating the best design and cuisine on the East Coast.

Best in braising. Winter means making slow-cooked meals in the oven. Our how-to guide for braising covers all of the bases.

LIBATIONS

Shake it up

The growing list of East Coast spirits gives Atlantic Canadian mixologists fresh ideas for creating classic and modern cocktails.

HOLIDAY GIFT GUIDE

Looking for the perfect holiday gift? Check out our gift guide for fabulous gift ideas for the home featuring new products from local and Canadian suppliers.

AND OUR NEW REGULAR FEATURES

- Home Currents—the latest trends in design, décor and architecture
- Last Look—spotlighting work from our region's top design professionals
- Source directory

HOLIDAY GIFT GUIDE

Looking for the perfect holiday gift? Check out our gift guide for fabulous gift ideas for the home featuring hot new products from local and Canadian suppliers.

east coast LIVING

2016 EDITORIAL CALENDAR

Our regular features:

- Home Currents—the latest trends in design, décor and architecture
- Last Look—spotlighting work from our region's top design professionals
- Buying guide