

CARDBOARD CATHEDRAL

Avondale Construction Limited

Ryan Garnett and David Bourque
www.avondaleconstruction.com
@WeAreAvondale

Avondale Construction is an established general contractor serving clients across Atlantic Canada with offices in Halifax, Moncton and Saint John. They provide building solutions for a variety of multi-unit residential, commercial, institutional and industrial clients.

What was the inspiration for your room?

Our room is inspired by the power to re-think everyday objects and materials. In this case, the repurposing of cardboard tubes creates a tranquil space with tactile, haptic and performative qualities. The combination of a classical form (the vault) composed of a low-tech, frugal, and often discarded material (cardboard) gets a fresh perspective with modern digital design techniques and fabrication processes.

What is your favourite dining room look?

A room that is versatile. Depending on the event, a room that can be casual, formal, playful, classic or forward thinking.

What does great design bring to the dining experience?

Great design should not only provide an inspirational and comfortable environment for enjoying a meal, it should complement and enhance a meal. Like the pairing of a finely crafted wine glass to a finely crafted wine.

If you could have dinner with one person, dead or alive, who would you pick?

Woody Allen.

Chef Ryan Hayes

Resto Urban Dining
www.restourbandining.ca
@RestoDining

Originally from Sussex, New Brunswick, Ryan Hayes and his family have been the proprietors and operators of Resto Urban Dining, located on the Bedford Highway, for over two years. With a focus on comfort food and an inviting atmosphere, the restaurant has become a staple in the Bedford dining experience. Always up for a challenge, Ryan is a firm believer in the “from scratch” philosophy, which mirrors the food he grew up with.

